

Harness the national enthusiasm for golf to create a fantastic fundraising event for serious players.

Golf tournament: Introduction

Created: 27 October 2008

A golf tournament aims to attract participants that take golf seriously.

Its success relies upon it being delivered by a team of people that are suitably experienced in golf and confident about running high prestige events.

Financially this is a high risk event and requires attention to quality control. But get it right and you can raise a lot of money.
