Databases, the whys and hows

You can soon reach a stage where the back of your address book just isn't big enough. Get a simple database and make life easier.

Environmentally friendly things

You can help save the planet and support a great cause

Event handover packs

Don't waste all your good efforts, have a plan in case you go down with the flu (or something)

Fundraising planning

See the big picture and hit your ambitious fundraising targets with style

Fundraising group handover packs

Unless you want to be responsible for supporting your fundraising group forever, it is a good idea to create a handover pack.

Some simple guidance to keep it safe and happy

More than just donations

It's far more than just donations to good causes, volunteer fundraising brings communities together
