

Volunteer Management Toolkit

Created: 03 December 2010

A key ingredient of Big Society is empowering individuals to get involved in their local community. Whether it's setting up a co-operative or volunteering to tidy a community green, all volunteer activities need to be co-ordinated.

You may find this comprehensive volunteer management resource from KnowHow Non Profit useful for getting the tools you need to manage volunteers and do your bit to make Big Society happen in your area.
